

The African Chapter of

INUKA AFRIKA

— CONFERENCE —

OCTOBER
2022

KAMPALA UGANDA

Disciplining GATE KEEPERS

The African Chapter of

Background

INUKA AFRIKA is the Africa Region arm of Salt and Light International Ministries, a body that brings together churches with a vision to: Disciple a generation of leaders for Africa and beyond.

This conference that was held from 5th - 8th October 2022, sought to train leaders from all over Africa and beyond in the area of transformation and the significance of taking the Gospel to the seven spheres of society namely: Governance, Religion, Business, Family, Education, Media, as well as Entertainment.

Day 1

Welcome remarks from the General Overseer of Deliverance Church Uganda, Pastor Edward Kiwanuka.

The General Overseer of Deliverance Church, Pr. Edward Kiwanuka welcomed the participants to the 4th INUKA AFRIKA Conference, who were drawn from: Zimbabwe, South Africa, Kenya, Zambia, Botswana, Malawi, Cameroon, Rwanda, the United Kingdom and the host Nation, Uganda. He declared that this was the time for Africa to arise!

Delegates at the INUKA AFRIKA Conference

Pastor Percy Kadziyanike giving opening remarks

The Chairman INUKA AFRIKA, Pastor Percy Kadziyanike, shared the report of the INUKA 2021, and explained the Vision. He emphasized that INUKA AFRIKA, is tasked with awakening Gatekeepers raised by the Lord, to bring about transformation in the seven spheres of society.

Dr. James Magara, the Chairman of the Uganda Jubilee Network, raised an altar for Africa.

Using Ezekiel 1:1, he led the congregation in three areas of prayer; for themselves, their neighbors and the Conference Ministers. They prayed for: the heavens to open, God to release visions, God's word to be revealed and for the Lord's hand to rest upon the people.

Various Church leaders led prayers of agreement, while a trumpet was sounded as a symbol of Africa's victory and remembrance by the Lord.

Mrs. Dorothy Kisaka the Executive Director, KCCA

The Executive Director of the Kampala Capital City Authority (KCCA), Mrs. Dorothy Kisaka summarised the first day's deliberations, speaking about the role of Gatekeepers and how God calls and empowers them to fulfil His Kingdom Agenda.

Day 2

The second day of the INUKA AFRIKA Conference began with a presentation by Pastor Steve Thomas, Chairperson of Salt and Light International. He spoke about growing the Fivefold Ministry in every church.

He explained that the body of Christ grows when people seek the Lord, hear from Him and diligently follow His direction.

Rev. Steve Thomas during his presentation

A panel discussion of spiritual elders then shared their personal call to ministry, the challenges they face and counsel for the young generation.

From left to right: Bishop Mulisa James, Pastor Nicholas Wafula, Bishop Simon Peter Emiau, Pr. Edward Kiwanuka, Rev. Steve and Lorraine.

Rev. Julian Kyula, Senior Pastor - Purpose Centre Church

Rev. Julian Kyula the Senior Pastor Purpose Centre Church, talked about God's ultimate purpose for the universe which is to fill the world with His glory and how this glory will be brought about by the sons of God inheriting His Kingdom. "The sons of God must increase and manifest the Lord as they allow Him to act through them" he said.

The Deliverance Church Choir leading worship

Ms. Irene Kauma, a member of the INUKA AFRIKA Apostolic Team addressing the participants.

Ms. Irene Kauma, a member of the "INUKA AFRIKA" Apostolic Team expressed her desire for the participants to wait upon the Lord. She stressed the fact that the Lord longs to be gracious to Africa and encouraged the participants not only to pray, but also believe that God would answer their prayers.

Day 3

Pastor Laban Jumba of the Deliverance Church, presented the "INUKA AFRIKA, Historic and Prophetic Perspectives." He stated that God does not work in a vacuum, thus the significance of the historical context.

He explained that this prophetic perspective is essential because God is committed to fulfilling His promises to His people.

Pastor Laban Jumba sharing

The Senior Pastor of the Deliverance Church Umoja, Bishop J.B. Masinde, while quoting the Bible in Joshua 1:1-9, challenged the congregation to arise and take on the work set before them by the Lord.

He charged the Church to go into every sphere of influence, bringing about national transformation, since the Lord promised to be with each one, to the end of the age.

Bishop J.B. Masinde speaking to Church Leaders

Leaders being prayed for at the Conference

Uganda Youth Forum - INUKA AFRIKA Edition

The First Lady and Hon. Minister of Education and Sports, Janet K. Museveni, hosted the Uganda Youth Forum at the State House Entebbe, under the theme: "The Cutting Edge".

Rev. Julian Kyula addressing the Youth

Rev. Julian Kyula, one of the Youth Forum speakers, advised the young people to make God the foundation of everything they do.

Quoting the Bible in Lamentations 3:26-27, he cautioned them to use their youthful days wisely.

Mr. Paul Wafula sharing his testimony with the Youth

Mr. Paul Wafula a member of the INUKA AFRIKA Apostolic Team, shared his testimony with the young people, pointing out the importance of reading God's word daily. He stressed the significance of knowing God's Word as the guide post for a successful life.

Dr. James Magara making his remarks at the Youth Forum

Participants attending the Uganda Youth Forum at State House Entebbe

The First Lady Janet K. Museveni addressing the Youth

The First Lady of Uganda, Maama Janet K. Museveni, welcomed the INUKA AFRIKA delegation to Uganda. She acknowledged their presence as a divine appointment, as Uganda was in the midst of celebrating her 60th Independence Anniversary.

In light of Daniel 6:12, Mama Janet challenged the youth to discover their life purpose and to always glorify the Lord with their lives.

Uganda's First Lady, Janet K. Museveni and the INUKA AFRIKA Delegation with participants of the Youth Forum at State House Entebbe.

Day 4

Pastor Sande Munatsi praying for the youth

The last day's deliberations focused on Youth and Women. Pastor Sande Munatsi of the Greatness Covenant Centre, South Africa urged the youth to rise to the occasion and set the standard in leadership as role models for their peers. "This is your time to make a difference", he said.

Youth discussing the use of social media in the Church

Eva Matsiko a governance expert hosted a marketplace conversation with Damon Kitabire one of Uganda's distinguished economists, Allen Kagina who has been at the helm of national transformation in Uganda and Barbara Ofwono a celebrated educationist.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kinyua, founder of Naomi Talk speaking to women leaders

Rev. Steve and Lorraine Thomas, Mama Maria Preat attending the Conference

Conclusion

The four day INUKA AFRIKA Conference proved exceptionally impactful and inspirational.

Over 2,000 leaders comprising of men, women and youth from various denominations, attended the Conference; united in their desire to make a difference in their spheres of influence.

Various leaders from Africa and beyond were awakened to recognise and acknowledge their role as gatekeepers, mandated by God to disciple and impact the next generation of leaders.

